

OMAR LAMZAH

LARAVEL DEVELOPER

ABOUT

I'm an accomplished full-stack developer with expertise in HTML, CSS, algorithms, data structures, JavaScript, PHP, Laravel, ReactJS, Next.js, and Express.js. With experience in freelance and professional roles, including a year in a small company, I excel in crafting dynamic web applications and managing maintenance tasks. I'm eager to contribute my skills in any capacity – full-time, part-time, or freelance – to help drive your organization's success and continue growing professionally while making meaningful contributions.
